

Books on the Ukrainian Famine

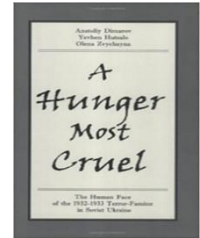

Non-fiction:

A Hunger Most Cruel: Selected Prose Fiction* by Anatoliy A. Dimarov, Yevhen Hutsalo, Olena Zvyhayna. edited by Sonia V. Morris and translated by Roma Z. Franko

Grade 10+

A compilation of stories of how ordinary people were affected by the famine.

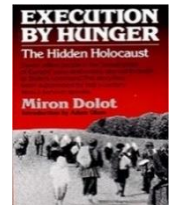

- Teacher Resources:
 - <http://www.faminegenocide.com/kuryliw/hunger-lessons.htm>

Execution by Hunger: The Hidden Holocaust* by Miron Dolot

Grade 10+

Eyewitness accounts of survivors of the famine.

Everything Flows* by Vasily Grossman translated by Robert Chandler

Grade 10+

A reflection of life in the gulags from a survivor.

- Teacher Resources:
 - http://www.uwosh.edu/faculty_staff/henson/227/grossman_sq1.html

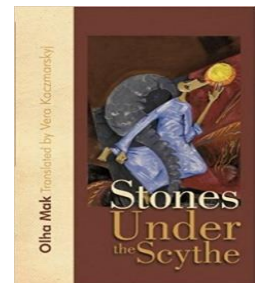

Fiction:

Stones Under the Scythe* by Olha Mak translated by Vera Kaczmarskyj

Grade 10+

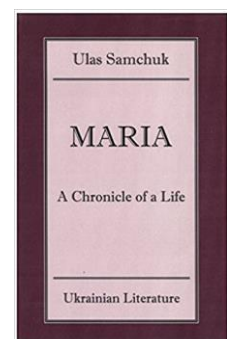

A coming of age story that follows a young boy and the effects of the famine on his town and his family.

Maria: The Chronicle of a Life* by Ulas Samchuk, Paul Chipywnyk (editor), Roma Z. Franko (translator)

Grade 10+

The story of a village women's life from the emancipation of the serfs through the famine-genocide.

Enough* by Masha F. Skrypuch and Micheal Martchenko

Grades 2 - 4

A fictional tale of how a family survives the Ukranian Famine with magic.

- Teacher Resources:
 - <http://www.calla.com/wordpress/enough-teachers-guide/>
 - <http://holodomorct.org/holodomor-information-links/historical-fiction-stories-children-holodomor/>

